to get in first on the ground floor. A network of good transportation lines is considered the groundwork for centralizing trade, and if Wheeling profits by extending electric lines to Bellaire and Moundsville, why should she not by such a line as that indicated?"

Mr. Jacob's ideas are certainly practical and worthy of earnest consideration.

COMMENCE THIS MORNING.

Work on the Beswood Southern Bailway to be Started.

Yesterday Colonel Ben Wilson, of Clarksburg, and Mr. J. W. Burchinal, of Moundsville, who are interested in the construction of the electric railway from Beawood to Moundsville, known as the Benwood Southern, were in the city conferring with the engineer of the contractors, Hughes & Clark, of Beaver Falls, relative to a start on the construction of the road. Last night one of the contractors arrived in the city from Homestead, where they have been having litigation that prevented the completion of a contract there, otherwise work would have been started on the Beawood road last week. It was announced last evening that work on the road would be started at Benwood this morning with a force of about fifty laborers. The contractors' tools and machinery arrived yesterday. It is expected the road will be completed early in the summer. Clarksburg, and Mr. J. W. Burchinal, of pected the road will be completed early in the summer.

Messrs. Wilson and Burchinal appeared before the Benwood town council last evening and asked for a change in the franchise given the Benwood Southern Company. It was originally intended that the line should terminate at the Riverside works, in upper Benwood, where connections would be made with the Wineeling street ar system. It has been found expedient. made with the Wheeling steet a sys-tem. It has been found expedient, however, to run the road up through Benwood, via the Wheeling steel works, in the lower end of the town, and con-nect with the Wheeling line in front of Deegan's store, in the central part of the town. This shortens the line somewhat. The Benwood city legislators readily acceded to the desired change readily acceded to the desired change in the ordinance granting the franchise, so that nothing now seems to be in the way of the speedy building of the road with the exception of possible inclemency in the weather. The company has about completed a suitable traffic arrangement with the Wheeling Railway

German Theatre at the Opera House.

A great treat will be in store for German speaking citizens, and the appearance of the German Theatre Company, of Cincinnati, Onio, at the Opera House next Friday and Suturday, November 30 and December 1, should be the signal for them to turn out en masse to fill the house to the last seat, The company will produce the following plays: Friday night, "King Krause;" Saturday matinee, "Der Herr Senator," and Saturday night, "Dor Probopfeil." The Cincinnati German papers speak very highly of the fine acting of the company, and pronounce them even better than last year. They played at the Opera House here last April and gave splendid satisfaction. Seats will be on sale this morning at C. A. House's music store, and no doubt will go off with a rush.

THE CLAIMS COMMITTEE

Has Up Several Old Matters and One New

Last evening the council committee on claims met for the purpose of considering various claims against the city. There were present Chairman Paull and Mesers. Dobbins, Knoke, Hadlick and Doiters. Among the attorneys present who were interested in cases were Messrs, G. W. Atkinson, T. S. Riley and Joseph Elson in addition to City Solicitor Robert White.

City Solicitor Robert White.

The case of Mrs. Walker, wife of Rev.
P. G. Walker, of the colored Methodist church, who several months ago fell off a retaining wall on Morrow street, in the Second ward, which was not protected by a railing. Mrs. Walker was on hand, accompanied by her concell, Hon. G. W. Atkenson, and by Dr. B. H. Stillyard, who attended her during her sickness caused by the fall. Mrs. Walker testified that she received severe injuries by reason of the fall and Mrs. Waiker testined that she received severe injuries by reason of the fall and that her right side is partially paralyzed. Colonel White admitted, as did the committee, that Mrs. Walker received severe injuries. Mr. Dobbins received severe injuries. Mr. Dobbins raised the point that the owner of the abutting property should stand responsible for the accident, but both Mr. Atkinson and Colonel White gave the opinion that the city, in this case, at least, is liable. It was suggested that the claimant name a figure at which she would be willing to settle. After a conference with her attorney, Mrs. Walker said she would settle at $250. Mr. Atkinson later said be would accept $200 for his client.

Mr. Dobbins was in favor of taking the matter to the West Virginia supreme court and determine whether the city or abutting property owner is liable. The other members of the committee, however, took the view that the city is clearly liable and should settle on the best possible terms. Mr. Dobbins wasted a settlement at $50, but this Mr. Atkinson would not consider. Members of the committee next offered $150 and $175 respectively, but neither was acceptable. Finally Dobbins moved to reject the claim, which was lost. Finally the motion to give $200 to the claimant was passed.

The claim of David O'Leary, who wasted damages for the injury to his house by a slide of the street running along Jonathan's ravine, was taken up for about the 'steenth time. Mr. Dobbins wanted to leave it for the courts to settle, but the committee seemed to bins wanted to leave it for the courts to settle, but the committee seemed to have different views. After the full claim was rejected, Mr. T. S. Riley, attorney for the claimant, offered to accept $211 as a compromise, and the committee decided to recommend that conneil accept this.

F. A. Meyer put in a claim for $50 surgeon's fees and $25 to pay nurse, for injuries received by having his leg broken by his wagon sliding off Linn street into Eleventh. The committee, after some discussion, agreed to meet Friday at 4 p. m. to go up and examine the locality where the accident occurred.

The claim of J. E. West against the city was next brought up, Mr. Joseph D. Elson representing the claimant. It D. Elson representing the claimant. It seems that a judgment was entered in Squire W. W. Rogers' court three years ago against the city for $300. The service of the papers in the suit had been served on Mayor Seabright, but as no one appeared in defense of the city the case went by default. Mr. Elson wanted to know the city's intentions. The committee decided to contest the claim in the courts. in the courts.

"Daughters of Eve."

A powerful and brilliant play, strong scenes, true pathos and real wit and humor, characterized the play pre-sented by Miss Marie Wainwright at the Opera House last night to a large and refiped audience, which showed disand refined audience, which showed dis-criminating appreciation. As to the manner in which it is put on the stage there can be no rea-sonable criticism. Miss Wainwright never showed such power before, and Nathaniel Hartwig gave her worthy support, while the company was even and capable. As to the morality of the story, it is mere caviling to object to it and let pass "Camille," "Lady Winder-mero's Fan," "As in a Looking Glass," or half the novels or dramas of the day. It teaches a valuable lesson in a forcible way.
